

James M. Branum, BA '00

James, a Mennonite Minister of Peace and Justice, devotes his practice to members of the military involving issues ranging from conscientious objection to mental health.

Clients and sympathetic donors can find him through his website, GIRightsLawyer.com, or catch him on the road in his Nissan Sentra traveling between military bases with Sandy, his 3-year-old dog.