Dear Brother:

The Church of Christ in Newburgh, Indiana is looking for a full-time pulpit minister. We are looking for a preacher who is sound in the gospel, strong in scripture, presents challenging sermons, able to work with varying age differences within the congregation, promotes family values, and willing to be active in the congregation and community. He will be expected to preach Sunday mornings and participate in other congregational activities.

Newburgh is a community of about 3,000 people. It is located just outside of Evansville, IN. Newburgh has a small hometown feel. Our congregation has three elders and three deacons with an average Sunday morning attendance of 40. We use acapella music and technology in our worship services. We have various outreach activities in our local area. We also support various works in the community and camps.

If you are interested in working with our congregation in Newburgh, please submit your resume which should include personal, family, education and work history. It should also include a photo, references, and a video/audio of a recent sermon. Please send to:
